FLYWHEEL DESIGN WINS ADDY AWARD

Flywheel Design, a full-service graphic design and marketing company in downtown Durham, received a bronze award in the American Advertising Federation's ADDY Awards, the nation's largest advertising competition.

The American Advertising Federation (AAF) presents ADDY awards to agencies that demonstrate excellence in all forms of advertising. Flywheel received recognition for its outstanding work on the Signal Path Brochure, which showcases their client's elegantly designed furniture and high-end audio equipment..

Flywheel Design works with many types of businesses and institutions to provide creative strategy and graphic design for print projects, websites, advertising, and corporate identity.
